TWENTY-FOURTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

They shall be like a tree planted by water, sending out its roots by the stream. It shall not fear when heat comes, and its leaves shall stay green; in the year of drought it is not anxious, and it does not cease to bear fruit. - Jeremiah 17:8

*THE COLLECT OF THE DAY

Priest God be with you.

People And also with you.

FIRST READING • Wisdom 6:12-16

Reader A reading from Wisdom.

Wisdom is radiant and unfading,
and she is easily discerned by those who love her,
and is found by those who seek her.
She hastens to make herself known to those who desire her.
One who rises early to seek her will have no difficulty,
for she will be found sitting at the gate.
To fix one's thought on her is perfect understanding,
and one who is vigilant on her account will soon be free from care, because she goes about seeking those worthy of her,
and she graciously appears to them in their paths,
and meets them in every thought.

Reader The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

PSALM 70: 1-6 • Braydon Perrupato, cantor • arr. by Luke Honeck

ANTIPHON

Let all who seek you re - joice and be glad in you.

Be pleased, O God, to deliver me;
 O God, make haste to help me.
 Let those who seek my life be ashamed and altogether dismayed;
 let those who take pleasure in my misfortune,
 draw back and be disgraced.
 Let those who say to me "Aha!" and gloat over me turn back,
 because they are ashamed.
 Let all who seek you rejoice and be glad in you;
 let those who love your salvation say for ever,
 "Great is the Holy One!"

ANTIPHON (ALL SING)

But as for me, I am poor and needy;
 come to me speedily, O God.
 You are my helper and my deliverer;
 O God, do not tarry.

ANTIPHON (ALL SING)

SECOND READING • 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18

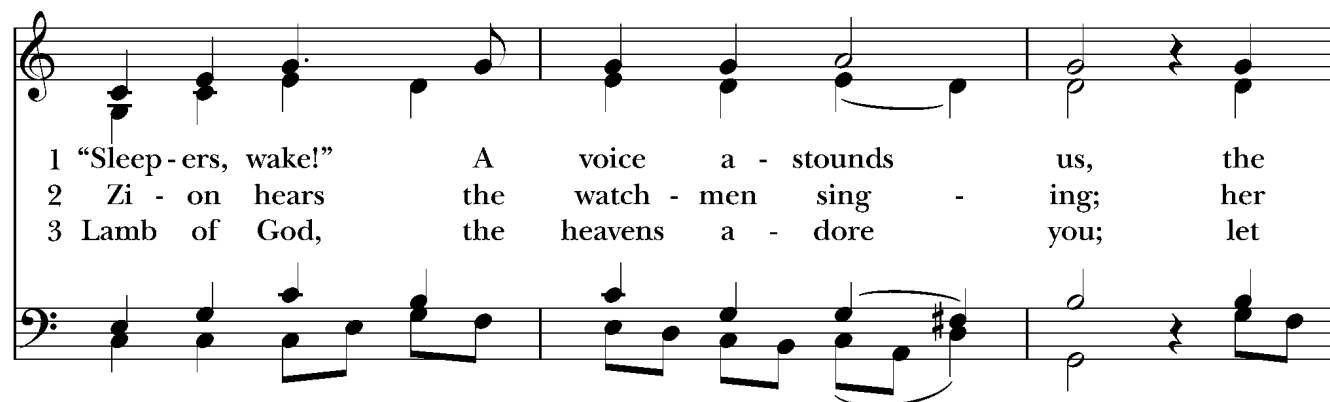

Reader A reading from Thessalonians.

We do not want you to be uninformed, siblings, about those who have died, so that you may not grieve as others do who have no hope. For since we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so, through Jesus, God will bring with him those who have died. For this we declare to you by the word of the Lord, that we who are alive, who are left until the coming of the Lord, will by no means precede those who have died. For the Lord himself, with a cry of command, with the archangel's call and with the sound of God's trumpet, will descend from heaven, and the dead in Christ will rise first. Then we who are alive, who are left, will be caught up in the clouds together with them to meet the Lord in the air; and so we will be with the Lord forever. Therefore encourage one another with these words.

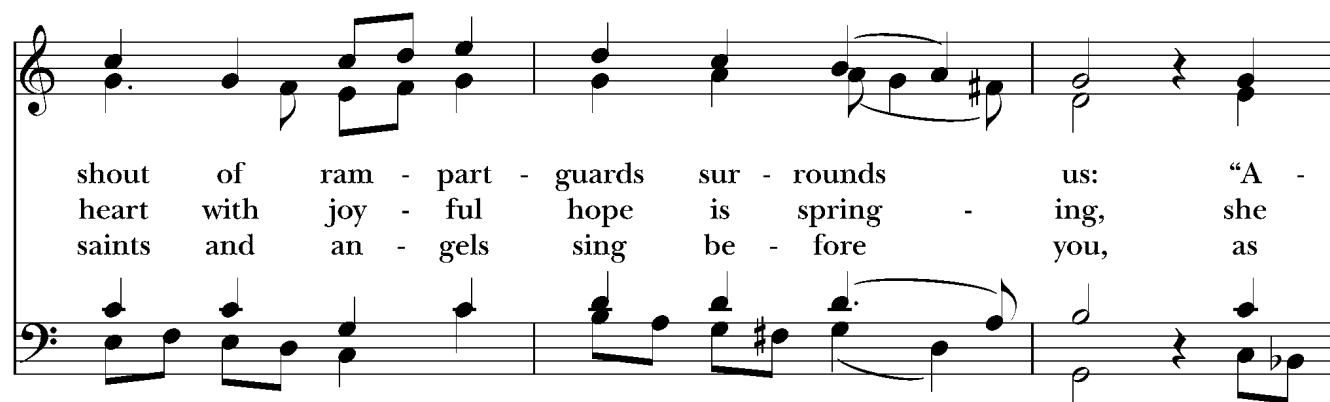

Reader The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL • Matthew 25:1-13

Priest The Holy Gospel of our Saviour Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Priest Jesus said, "Then the kingdom of heaven will be like this. Ten bridesmaids took their lamps and went to meet the bridegroom. Five of them were foolish, and five were wise. When the foolish took their lamps, they took no oil with them; but the wise took flasks of oil with their lamps. As the bridegroom was delayed, all of them became drowsy and slept. But at midnight there was a shout, 'Look! Here is the bridegroom! Come out to meet him.' Then all those bridesmaids got up and trimmed their lamps. The foolish said to the wise, 'Give us some of your oil, for our lamps are going out.' But the wise replied, 'No! there will not be enough for you and for us; you had better go to the dealers and buy some for yourselves.' And while they went to buy it, the bridegroom came, and those who were ready went with him into the wedding banquet; and the door was shut. Later the other bridesmaids came also, saying, 'Lord, lord, open to us.' But he replied, 'Truly I tell you, I do not know you.' Keep awake therefore, for you know neither the day nor the hour."

*THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Gather us together, O God, that we might share the prayers, intentions, and thanksgivings of our community.

We are generous with our gifts,
because we are rooted in abundance.

I ask your prayers for the Church, for all who worship God this day. For clergy, diocesan leaders, and for this congregation. We pray especially for this season in which we celebrate stories of our shared mission and ministry.

We are generous with gifts of leadership,
because we are rooted in abundance.

I ask your prayers for our nation and all nations; for refugees fleeing climate change and war; for conflicts of resources and land; for lawmakers, peacekeepers, and informed citizens. We pray for a distribution of wealth that supports justice for the poor and the marginalized, and right relations among all people.

We are generous with gifts of peace,
because we are rooted in abundance.

I ask your prayers for the sick, the lonely, the lost, and those who grieve. We remember those on our parish prayer list, and those we name now in silence or aloud.

[Here prayers are shared in the chat box, or by voicing them aloud.]

We are generous with gifts of healing,
because we are rooted in abundance.

I ask your prayers for those who have died, those who are dying, and those who mourn. For those on our parish prayer list, and for those we name now in silence or aloud.

[Here prayers are shared in the chat box, or by voicing them aloud.]

We are generous with gifts of support,
because we are rooted in abundance.

I ask for your thanksgivings and blessings, for we are given time, talent, and treasure to share with the world.

We are generous with gratitude,
because we are rooted in abundance.

Silence may be kept.

Priest: Hear the prayers of your people, Creator God. May we who are entrusted with so much share with a world in need. Amen.

A Priest says And now, let us confess our sin, to God and each other.
Together, praying,

Minister and People

Most merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned against you
in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done,
and by what we have left undone.

We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.

We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.

For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ,
have mercy on us and forgive us;
that we may delight in your will,
and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your Name. Amen.

A Priest says

Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sin through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

THE PEACE

The Peace is now exchanged

Priest The peace of God be always with you.

People Also with you.

Then the People may greet one another in the name of God.

and for our life which comes from you.
By your power you sustain the universe.

People Glory to you for ever and ever.

Celebrant You created us to love you with all our heart,
and to love each other as ourselves,
but we rebel against you by the evil that we do.

In Jesus, your Son,
you bring healing to our world
and gather us into one great family.
Therefore, with all who serve you
on earth and in heaven,
we praise your wonderful name, as we sing,

SANCTUS WLP 854

Celebrant We give you thanks and praise, loving God, because in sending Jesus, your Son, to us
 you showed us how much you love us.
 He cares for the poor and the hungry.
 He suffers with the sick and the rejected.
 Betrayed and forsaken, he did not strike back but overcame hatred with love.
 On the cross
 he defeated the power of sin and death.
 By raising him from the dead
 you show us the power of your love to bring new life to all your people.

People Glory to you for ever and ever.

Celebrant On the night before he gave up his life for us,
 Jesus, at supper with his friends,
 took bread, gave thanks to you,
 broke it, and gave it to them,
 saying, "Take this, all of you, and eat it:
 this is my body which is given for you."
 After supper, Jesus took the cup of wine,
 said the blessing, gave it to his friends,
 and said, "Drink this, all of you:
 this is the cup of my blood,
 the blood of the new and eternal covenant,
 which is shed for you and for all,
 so that sins may be forgiven.
 Do this in memory of me."

People Glory to you for ever and ever

Celebrant Gracious God,
 with this bread and wine
 we celebrate the death and resurrection of Jesus,
 and we offer ourselves to you in him.
 Send your Holy Spirit on us and on these gifts,
 that we may know the presence of Jesus

in the breaking of bread, and share in the life
of the family of your children.

People Glory to you for ever and ever.

Celebrant God, you call us to be your servants;
fill us with the courage and love of Jesus,
that all the world may gather in joy
at the table of your kingdom.
We sing your praise, almighty God,
through Jesus, our Lord,
in the power of the Holy Spirit,
now and for ever.

People Glory to you for ever and ever. Amen.

Priest As our Savior Christ has taught us, we now pray, each in the language of their heart,

People and Celebrant,

*Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins as we forgive
those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial
and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
and the glory are yours, now and forever. Amen.*
