GATHERING IN THE NAME OF GOD

GATHERING MUSIC • Various selections from the Liturgical Music • Praise Singers

GATHERING MUSIC • How Can I Keep From Singing? • Music by Robert Wadsworth Lowry; lyricist unknown

My life flows on in endless song
Above earth's lamentation,
 I hear the real though far off hymn
That hails the new creation,

No storm can shake my inmost calm
While to this rock I'm clinging,
 It sounds an echo in my soul
How can I keep from singing?

What though the tempest round me rears,
I know the truth it liveth.
 What though the darkness round me nears
Songs in the night it giveth.

No storm can shake my inmost calm
While to this rock I'm clinging,
 It sounds an echo in my soul
How can I keep from singing?

What though my joys and comforts die,
I know my Savior liveth.
 What through the darkness gather round?
Songs in the night he giveth.

The peace of Christ makes fresh my heart,
 a fountain ever springing!

All things are mine since I am his!
 How can I keep from singing?
How can I keep from singing?

*OPENING SENTENCES

Priest Blessed be the one, holy, and living God.

People Glory to God for ever and ever.

Priest Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name, through Christ our Savior. Amen.

SERVICE OF THE WORD

*THE COLLECT

Priest God be with you.

People And also with you.

Priest Let us pray.

Almighty and everlasting God, in Christ you have revealed your glory among the nations: Preserve the works of your mercy, that your Church throughout the world may persevere with steadfast faith in the confession of your Name; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

FIRST READING • Isaiah 45:1-7

Reader A Reading from Isaiah.

Thus says the Lord to his anointed, to Cyrus, whose right hand I have grasped to subdue nations before him and strip kings of their robes, to open doors before him-- and the gates shall not be closed:
 I will go before you and level the mountains,
 I will break in pieces the doors of bronze and cut through the bars of iron,
 I will give you the treasures of darkness and riches hidden in secret places, so that you may know that it is I, the Lord,
 the God of Israel, who call you by your name.
 For the sake of my servant Jacob,
 and Israel my chosen,
 I call you by your name, I surname you, though you do not know me.

I am the Lord, and there is no other;
 besides me there is no god.
 I arm you, though you do not know me, so that they may know, from the rising of the sun and from the west, that there is no one besides me;
 I am the Lord, and there is no other.
 I form light and create darkness,
 I make weal and create woe;
 I the Lord do all these things.

Reader The Word of the Lord.

PSALM 99

ANTIPHON

God reigns, let the people tremble.
 God is enthroned upon the cherubim, let the earth shake.
 God is great in Zion and is high above all peoples.
 Let them confess the Name, which is great and awesome;
 God is the Holy One.
 "O mighty ruler, lover of justice,
 you have established equity;
 you have executed justice and righteousness in Jacob."
 Proclaim the greatness of God, our God
 and fall down before God's footstool;
 God is the Holy One.

ANTIPHON (ALL SING)

Moses and Aaron among his priests,
 Samuel among those who call upon the Name,
 they called upon God,
 who answered them.

God spoke to them out of the pillar of cloud;
 and kept the testimonies and the decree that were given to them.
 “O God, our God, you answered them indeed;
 you were a God who forgave them, yet punished them for their evil deeds.”

ANTIPHON (ALL SING)

Proclaim the greatness of God, our God,
 and worship upon the holy hill;
 for God, our God is the Holy One.

ANTIPHON (ALL SING)

SECOND READING • 1 Thessalonians 1:1-10

Reader A Reading from 1 Thessalonians.

Paul, Silvanus, and Timothy, To the church of the Thessalonians in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ:

Grace to you and peace.

We always give thanks to God for all of you and mention you in our prayers, constantly remembering before our God and Father your work of faith and labor of love and steadfastness of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ. For we know, brothers and sisters beloved by God, that he has chosen you, because our message of the gospel came to you not in word only, but also in power and in the Holy Spirit and with full conviction; just as you know what kind of persons we proved to be among you for your sake. And you became imitators of us and of the Lord, for in spite of persecution you received the word with joy inspired by the Holy Spirit, so that you became an example to all the believers in Macedonia and in Achaia. For the word of the Lord has sounded forth from you not only in Macedonia and Achaia, but in every place your faith in God has become known, so that we have no need to speak about it. For the people of those regions report about us what kind of welcome we had among you, and how you turned to God from idols, to serve a living and true God, and to wait for his Son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead-- Jesus, who rescues us from the wrath that is coming.

THE GOSPEL • Matthew 22:15-22

Priest The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Priest The Pharisees went and plotted to entrap Jesus in what he said. So they sent their disciples to him, along with the Herodians, saying, "Teacher, we know that you are sincere, and teach the way of God in accordance with truth, and show deference to no one; for you do not regard people with partiality. Tell us, then, what you think. Is it lawful to pay taxes to the emperor, or not?" But Jesus, aware of their malice, said, "Why are you putting me to the test, you hypocrites? Show me the coin used for the tax." And they brought him a denarius. Then he said to them, "Whose head is this, and whose title?" They answered, "The emperor's." Then he said to them, "Give therefore to the emperor the things that are the emperor's, and to God the things that are God's." When they heard this, they were amazed; and they left him and went away.

*THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Gather us together, O God, that we might share the prayers, intentions, and thanksgivings of our community.

We are generous with our gifts,
because we are rooted in abundance.

I ask your prayers for the Church, for all who worship God this day. For clergy, diocesan leaders, and for this congregation. We pray especially for this season in which we celebrate stories of our shared mission and ministry.

We are generous with gifts of leadership,
because we are rooted in abundance.

I ask your prayers for our nation and all nations; for refugees fleeing climate change and war; for conflicts of resources and land; for lawmakers, peacekeepers, and informed citizens. We pray for a distribution of wealth that supports justice for the poor and the marginalized, and right relations among all people.

We are generous with gifts of peace,
because we are rooted in abundance.

I ask your prayers for the sick, the lonely, the lost, and those who grieve. We remember those on our parish prayer list, and those we name now in silence or aloud.

[Here prayers are shared in the chat box, or by voicing them aloud.]

We are generous with gifts of healing,
because we are rooted in abundance.

I ask your prayers for those who have died, those who are dying, and those who mourn. For those on our parish prayer list, and for those we name now in silence or aloud.

[Here prayers are shared in the chat box, or by voicing them aloud.]

We are generous with gifts of support,
because we are rooted in abundance.

I ask for your thanksgivings and blessings, for we are given time, talent, and treasure to share with the world.

We are generous with gratitude,
because we are rooted in abundance.

Silence may be kept.

Priest: Hear the prayers of your people, Creator God. May we who are entrusted with so much share with a world in need. Amen.

A Priest says And now, let us confess our sin, to God and each other.
Together, praying,

Minister and People

Most merciful God,

*we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done,
and by what we have left undone.*

*We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.*

We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.

*For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will,
and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your Name. Amen.*

A Priest says

Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

Celebrant We give you thanks and praise, loving God, because in sending Jesus, your Son, to us you showed us how much you love us.
 He cares for the poor and the hungry.
 He suffers with the sick and the rejected.
 Betrayed and forsaken, he did not strike back but overcame hatred with love.
 On the cross
 he defeated the power of sin and death.
 By raising him from the dead you show us the power of your love to bring new life to all your people.

People Glory to you for ever and ever.

Celebrant On the night before he gave up his life for us, Jesus, at supper with his friends, took bread, gave thanks to you, broke it, and gave it to them, saying, "Take this, all of you, and eat it:
 this is my body which is given for you."

After supper, Jesus took the cup of wine, said the blessing, gave it to his friends, and said, "Drink this, all of you:
 this is the cup of my blood,
 the blood of the new and eternal covenant, which is shed for you and for all,
 so that sins may be forgiven.
 Do this in memory of me."

People Glory to you for ever and ever

Celebrant Gracious God, with this bread and wine
 we celebrate the death and resurrection of Jesus, and we offer ourselves to you in him.
 Send your Holy Spirit on us and on these gifts, that we may know the presence of Jesus in the breaking of bread, and share in the life of the family of your children.

People Glory to you for ever and ever.

Celebrant God, you call us to be your servants;
 fill us with the courage and love of Jesus, that all the world may gather in joy at the table of your kingdom.
 We sing your praise, almighty God,
 through Jesus, our Lord,
 in the power of the Holy Spirit,
 now and for ever.

People Glory to you for ever and ever. Amen.
